Unit 1 Dialogs 2018

High School – Bring it on!

Older student: Welcome to your new high school! Let me show you some important places that you need to know about.

New student: Thanks! What is in that room over there?

Older student: That is the teacher's lounge. Students can't go in there.

New student: Where do students usually go?

Older student: At the end of this hall is the gym and the lab. Outside the gym, there is a huge sports field. Students usually like to spend time in that area of the school.

New student: Sounds great! I am excited for my first day.

Older student: Good! One last thing... don't forget to wear your school uniform!

A day in the life of my high school

Student: Excuse me, are you the librarian?

Librarian: Yes, I am. I work in the library every day. What can I help you with?

Student: I want to check out a book about science, but there is a man blocking the science section.

Librarian: Oh, that man is the school janitor.

Student: What is he doing?

Librarian: He is cleaning soda off the floor. Students know that food is not permitted in the library! I'm happy no soda got on the computers.

Student: How can I reach the science book that I want?

Librarian: There is another way to access the science section. Do you see the audiovisual equipment over there by the wall? Walk towards it, then go left, and you will see the other entrance into the science section!

Student: Great, thank you! I hope I don't get soda on my shoes.
